*In November's chill, the leaves drift down,
In colors of amber, red, and brown.
We bundle up warm, as the breezes blow,
Through fields and trees where pumpkins grow.*

*Bonfire sparks light up the sky,
Fireworks bloom and whistles fly!
We wear a poppy, red and bright,
Remembering heroes with hearts of light.*

*November days are crisp and clear,
With stories, songs, and friends so dear.
At nursery, we laugh and play,
In autumn's golden, gentle sway.*
